Ain't no use to sit and cry, sail away ladies, sail away.
You'll be an angel by and by, sail away ladies, sail away.

Don't you rock 'im die dy-o, don't you rock 'im die dy-o.

Big blue skies and room for all, sail away ladies, sail away.

Verse 3
Come along folks and go with me, sail away ladies, sail away.
Up and down on the deep blue sea, sail away ladies, sail away.

Pokarekare Ana
Waves breaking on the coral, white foam and blue water,
Stirring deep within my heart the longing I feel.
Oh my beloved, come soon to me.
Sail over the waters of the tropical sea.

Aussie Rondo

Australia, Australia, the "Land Down Under,"
Where it hardly ever rains and it seldom thunders.
An island, a country, a continent,
Colonized by people that England sent.
In the Southern Hemisphere there's only one bummer:
The seasons are reversed,
They have Christmas in our summer.

Jingle bells, jingle bells, jingle bells to you!
Oh what fun it is to ride in the pouch of a kangaroo!

B

I was waltzing with Matilda through the bushy outback
When I happened on amazing Uluru.
I climbed to the top, saw an eagle soar past
And even a herd of kangaroo.

The kookaburra sat in an old gum tree,
Laughing and laughing at everything he sees,
The koalas hung out and the wallabies sang
While the "didgiri dood" and the "boomer rang"

C

I caught a bus to Sydney for a sightseeing tour
To see all the famous attractions.
Our first stop was the Opera House for an aria,
And the audience was filled with satisfaction.
*{solo} "I ask to be or not to be,
And that is the question that I ask of me!"*

Everyone I met was a "bonzer bloke"
With a "fair dinkum" smile and "g'day mate!"
But I had a little trouble when I ordered my lunch,
'Cause the waiter brought a "gator" on my plate.

D

For a cultural adventure, I took a train to Cairns,
To visit with the ancient Aborigines.
I could see cool paintings, learn how they farm and hunt,
Or see the rain forest if I pleased.

Then I grabbed my snorkel and I headed out to sea
To swim around the Great Barrier Reef.
But I kept my eyes open for a Great White Shark
'Cause I didn't want to be his ground beef!!!
